Dear Mrs. Weisberg,

Let this be the first thing that I say to you, THANK YOU ! I was so very happy when I came home on Monday March 10th, I was very glad to see Harold's " Frame-Up ". The $20.00 is enclosed. I must say thank you again for answering my last letter, and for trusting that I would send the money for the book.

As you know, Harold is no longer speaking to me, I can not explain how that feels. He is such a dear friend and I mess things up, for that I will never forgive myself. He listened to everything I had to say, answered my questions, then when he would criticize me I would get mad and say that he was being mean, when all he was trying to do was help. I know this now, I should have thought of it then. We learn by our mistakes and I guess all I have to say is this, I am glad I got to meet him and you, the two most important people in this whole Kennedy Assassination maze. I will never say anything bad about Harold, never go against what he says and believes. That is all I can do for the man as of now, or maybe for the rest of my life.

Though I should have fun in Dallas visiting Leavelle, I would rather come up and visit you and Harold. I seem to get much more out of my trips when I talk over what I learned with Harold. I am glad that I can visit Jim. As Harold told me before, " You may not agree with him, but that does not make him a bad person ".

I do hope Harold will over come his anger with me because I mente nothing bad when I asked him about Oswald in New Orleans I just didn't understand some things. I hope in time he will. Thanks for your time and trusting me, that says alot.

Take Care,
Cal

P.S. When you get a chance please keep in touch, I would like to know how the two of you are doing
